Notice of Sunday Sales for Small Farm Wineries

July 14, 2014

The Kentucky Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (Department) is using this opportunity to inform you of changes resulting from the passage of Senate Bill 213 (SB 213) by the 2014 General Assembly.

As the holder of a Small Farm Winery license, this notice is to advise you of changes made during the 2014 General Assembly related to small farm wineries. Specifically, the General Assembly passed legislation to permit Sunday sales at a licensed small farm winery that is permitted to sell alcoholic beverages under KRS Chapter 242. This legislation specifies that these sales are only permitted if the legislative body of the county approves, by local ordinance, the sale of alcohol on Sundays at a licensed small farm winery, or if a limited sale precinct election is held and Sunday sales are approved for the licensed small farm winery in that precinct. The legislation also specifies that these sales are only permitted between the hours of 1 p.m. local time and prevailing time for the locality.

As a current licensee, it is important to us to keep you informed and to provide resources to ensure your success. Please contact the Department if you have questions or need further assistance.
